Financial Aid Awards Terms and Conditions

- Aid may be adjusted as new information becomes available, such as changes in enrollment, changes in residency, receipt of additional scholarships, changes to family circumstances, tax information, updated federal or state funding, etc.
- Students have the right to appeal financial aid decisions by submitting a written request for an appeal to the Office of Student Financial Planning. Any revisions to a student’s award information will be updated through the student’s CampusWeb account and a notice will be emailed to the student.
- The student is responsible for any increase in tuition and fees in future years.
- Federal, State, and Private funding will not be replaced by Morningside University if the student is determined to be ineligible based on eligibility requirements, insufficient funding, or if funding ends.

Verification

Morningside University is required by federal regulations to verify parent and student income along with family size and number of family members currently enrolled at institutions of higher learning. Morningside University reserves the right to verify information provided by all financial aid recipients. Financial aid eligibility will not be finalized until all requested forms are received, including IRS tax return transcript(s), and completed verification forms. If the number of family members enrolled at institutions of higher learning changes at any time during the year, such changes must be reported to the Office of Student Financial Planning. In order to equitably distribute institutional funds, Morningside University reserves the right to verify the enrollment of family members attending different institutions. If a discrepancy occurs between the number of family members reported to be enrolled at the time the financial aid application is completed and the number actually enrolled (at least half time for one semester), institutional grants may be affected.

Consumer Information

Federal law requires colleges and universities offering federal financial aid to provide consumers with information on Academic Programs and Policies, Enrollment Information, Student Financial Assistance, Campus Security, Health and Wellness, etc. You can view this information on our website at <https://morningside.edu/about-morningside/consumer-information>. If you have any problem retrieving this information, please contact Karen Wiese at 712-274-5159 or wiesek@morningside.edu.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Federal law requires colleges and universities to determine whether a student is maintaining satisfactory academic progress after each payment period before he or she can be awarded federally funded (Title IV) financial aid. For additional information, visit our website at

Financing Options

- Pay Each Semester/Term.
Pay your account balance by September 30th, November 30th, February 15th, April 30th, June 30th, and July 31st to avoid finance charges and late fees.
- Payments can be made by:
 - Check and can be mailed to Morningside University, Business Office, 1501 Morningside Avenue, Sioux City, IA 51106.
 - Online through the student's CampusWEB at <https://my.morningside.edu>; click on CampusWEB, enter Login ID and password; click on "My Billing"; click on "Make a Payment Now" (Electronic Check, Visa, MasterCard, Discover). A convenience fee of 2.75% will be added to all credit card and debit card transactions.
 - For additional information, see payment instructions at <https://my.morningside.edu/pay>.
- Apply for a Federal Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) Apply online at PLUS Loan Application | Federal Student Aid. The federal government affords parents the opportunity to borrow up to the cost of their child's education less any other forms of aid. Eligibility is based on credit worthiness. Repayment of the loan typically begins 60 days after the second disbursement has been issued to the university. Lenders have the ability to defer principal and interest payments for up to 48 months with in-school forbearance while your student is enrolled in college at least half time.
 - The interest rate is fixed at 7.54% as of July 1, 2022.
 - The federal government charges an Origination Fee of 4.228% from October 1, 2022 to September 30, 2023 of the amount borrowed. Any loan fees charged are deducted from the amount borrowed and the remaining amount is disbursed to the university. (Disbursement amount is typically 4.228% less than the amount borrowed).
- Apply for an alternative Student/Parent Private Loan. For additional information, visit our website at <https://choice.fastproducts.org/FastChoice/home/187900/1>. If you choose to borrow through a banking institution, please apply online or complete the appropriate forms and submit those to the Office of Student Financial Planning for processing. Eligibility is based on credit worthiness of the student and co-signer.
 - The interest rate can be fixed or variable depending on the lender and loan that you choose.
 - Repayment of the loan is based on the lender and loan that you choose, typically one of the following:
 - Can be deferred until after graduation
 - Require interest-only payments
 - Require monthly payments
 - Borrower Benefits:
 - Lender may offer an interest rate reduction if you pay your monthly payment electronically through direct debit payments.
 - Lender may offer co-signer release after so many on time payments.
